September 2018

Martin Luther King once said;

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter”

Look around at your street, your village, your country, your world.

What are the things that matter?

What do we need to stop letting slide and being silent about?

Where does your church need to speak out against injustice, against hatred, against division?

I ask you to think about this, and act, talk to me ,
 talk to others in your community, in your church,

And speak out.

Blessings, Rev Joe K
