Deuteronomy 30:15-end

At Rillington: The Old Testament reading is taken from Deuteronomy chapter thirty.	At Yedingham: The reading is taken from the thirtieth Chapter of the book of Deuteronomy beginning at the fifteenth verse.

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

At Rillington: This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.	At Yedingham: Here endeth the lesson.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. Glory to you, O Lord.	The Holy Gospel is written in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Luke beginning at the twenty fifth verse. Glory be to thee O Lord.

Luke 14:25-33

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions

At Rillington: This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.	At Yedingham: This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise be to thee, O Christ for this thy Holy Gospel.

Prayer for the week (COLLECT)

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus

At Rillington:	At Yedingham:

Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer for the Week at Home

*Lord Jesus, we thank you for your example and call to discipleship. We know that following you is not always easy and may mean that we sacrifice our own ambitions and attachments but give us the grace to do what we cannot do in our own strength but only in yours.
Amen*
