

Benefice of Buckrose Carrs

13th September 2026

Weekly Pew Sheet

Trinity 15

All readings are from Bible Gateway NRSV

The reading is taken from the one hundred and third chapter of the book of Psalms, beginning at the first verse

Psalms 103:(1-7), 8-13

[Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and do not forget all his benefits—
who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,
who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and
mercy,
who satisfies you with good as long as you
live

so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord works vindication
and justice for all who are oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.]

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast
love.

He will not always accuse,
nor will he keep his anger for ever.

He does not deal with us according to our
sins,

nor repay us according to our iniquities.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love towards
those who fear him;

as far as the east is from the west,
so far he removes our transgressions from
us.

As a father has compassion for his children,
so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him.

Here endeth the Lesson

The Holy Gospel is written in the eighteenth chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Matthew beginning at the twenty first verse.

Glory be to thee O Lord.

Matthew 18:21-35

Peter came to Jesus and said, 'Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?' Jesus said to him, 'Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.'

'For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, "Pay what you owe." Then his fellow-slave fell down and pleaded with him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you." But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, "You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow-slave, as I had mercy on you?" And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he should pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ for this thy Holy Gospel.

Prayer for the week (COLLECT)

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love:
grant that your people may be fervent
in the fellowship of the gospel
that, always abiding in you,
they may be found steadfast in faith and
active in service;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Keep, O Lord, your Church,
with your perpetual mercy;
and, because without you our human frailty
cannot but fall,
keep us ever by your help
from all things hurtful,
and lead us to all things
profitable to our salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
