Weekly Pew Sheet

Trinity 9

All readings are from Bible Gateway NRSV

At Rillington:

The reading is taken from Psalms chapter one hundred and forty five.

At Yedingham:

The reading is taken from the one hundred and forty fifth chapter of the book of Psalms beginning at the eighth verse.

Psalms 145:8-9, 14-21

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

The Lord is good to all,
and his compassion is over all that he has made.

The Lord upholds all who are falling,
and raises up all who are bowed down.

The eyes of all look to you,
and you give them their food in due season.

You open your hand,
satisfying the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is just in all his ways,
and kind in all his doings.

The Lord is near to all who call on him,
to all who call on him in truth.

He fulfils the desire of all who fear him;
he also hears their cry, and saves them.

The Lord watches over all who love him,
but all the wicked he will destroy.

My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord,
and all flesh will bless his holy name for ever and ever.

At Rillington:

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

At Yedingham:

Here endeth the lesson.

At Rillington:

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord.

At Yedingham:

The Holy Gospel is written in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Matthew beginning at the fourteenth verse.

Glory be to thee O Lord.

Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard about the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.' Jesus said to them, 'They need not go away; you give them something to eat.' They replied, 'We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.' And he said, 'Bring them here to me.' Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

At Rillington:

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

At Yedingham:

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ for this thy Holy Gospel.

Prayer for the week (COLLECT)

Almighty God,
who sent your Holy Spirit
to be the life and light of your Church:
open our hearts to the riches of your grace,
that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
in love and joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Holy Father,
who gathered us here around the table of your Son
to share this meal with the whole household
of God:
in that new world where you reveal the
fullness of your peace,
gather people of every race and language
to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
